Dysgraphia (a Specific Learning Disability in writing) appears as difficulties with spelling, handwriting and/or written expression. Individuals with Dysgraphia struggle to put their thoughts on paper in a meaningful and structured way. Dysgraphia can be language-based and/or motor (non-language) based.

This full day workshop will provide participants with an understanding of the defining features of written expression disorders and the functional impact of dysgraphia, and demonstrate effective strategies for use both in and out of the classroom.

Presenter: Gemma Boyle, BA (Hons), MPsych (Ed. & Dev.), Dip. Ed. (Spec.Ed.) Gemma is a Psychologist at DSF Literacy and Clinical Services where she coordinates literacy programs and consults with teachers and parents regarding literacy skill development and learning difficulties. Gemma is keen to maintain the link between theory and practice in order to provide evidence-based strategies for those experiencing literacy difficulties.

CANCELLATION POLICY

DSF Literacy Services has a 'no refund' policy. The exception would be when a Professional Learning Course had to be cancelled by the Foundation. All other requests for cancellation will be invited to re-register for another session. Late cancellation (less than 48 hrs) will necessitate the Foundation deducting an administration fee of $25.00 and transferring the balance to another Professional Learning Course.
