Dyspraxia is a neurologically-based developmental disability which is present from birth. It is a motor planning disorder. There are 3 types of dyspraxia; motor, oral and verbal and Dyspraxia can present as a combination of the types with varying degrees of severity.

This workshop will provide participants with an understanding of the defining features of this learning disability, and will focus on the functional impact of dyspraxia, demonstrating effective strategies for use both in and out of the classroom.

Presenter: Sarah Crawford, BA (Hons), MPsych (Ed. & Dev.), Dip. Ed. (Spec.Ed.) Sarah is a Psychologist at DSF Literacy Services where she assesses children and adults with learning difficulties and disabilities. She has had previous experience working in a classroom environment with children with speech and language impairments. Sarah is eager to provide research based strategies for those experiencing learning difficulties and to advocate on the behalf of students in schools.

CANCELLATION POLICY

DSF Literacy Services has a 'no refund' policy. The exception would be when a Professional Learning Course had to be cancelled by the Foundation. All other requests for cancellation will be invited to re-register for another session. Late cancellation (less than 48 hrs) will necessitate the Foundation deducting an administration fee of $25.00 and transferring the balance to another Professional Learning Course.
